MR EPP GIVES INTERESTING TALK TO SOROSIS SOCIETY

At the meeting of the Sorosis Society Wednesday evening last, Mr. Epp presided very efficiently in the absence of Mrs. Geo. Quinn. Further needs to carry on the welfare work were discussed; a series of bridge parties to be held to raise funds, the first party being at Mrs. Sorenson's Wednesday October 17th and a committee appointed to cooperate with others in the hope of creating a stronger peace movement, constituted the chief business. Mr. Epp, teacher at Nakama Farm School then gave a very interesting talk on the status of women, particularly before and since the Russian Revolution. Mr. Epp spoke from first hand knowledge, his parents both having been killed at this time. He spoke of the pitiful enslaved conditions and said that notwithstanding the blood shed in the revolution the conditions are now so much improved that there was cause for gladness. Today all professions and labor of all kinds are open to women on same basis as men. The people are kept on reduced rations in order to export in order to meet the vast requirements for machinery, etc., which they are importing to industrialize Russia on a modern basis. A vote of thanks was tendered Mr. Epp by Mrs. Williams and Mrs. White. A number of questions were asked, evidencing the interest of the audience. Refreshments were served at the home of Mrs. Shrimpton by the committee which comprised Mrs. Young, Mrs. Williams and Mrs. Moore.

LETTER TO THE EDITOR

Editor, Strathmore Standard. Father time moves relentlessly down south bringing the Fall and Provincial elections slowly, steadily, surely near. As ever, the approach of a forthcoming contest has induced among the members of certain political faiths the customary brand of hysteria. This nervousness results in plans being made, meetings being held and, eventually, nominations of candidates. It is sometimes rather depressing to realize that such intentions and enthusiasm are not enough. The welfare of the common people—the great middle class—is of greater importance than preservation of vast private fortunes or the hallucinations of a glib minority who have been swayed by the Utopian promises of soap box orators and spinners.

FREE COURSES IN AGRICULTURE FOR STUDENTS OVER 16 YEARS

In an advertisement appearing in this paper last week, it was incorrectly announced that free courses in Agriculture and Home Economics would be given at the Old and Vermilion Schools of Agriculture to boys and girls under sixteen years of age. PREPARING SEED

FAIR EXHIBITS

Seed fairs will be attracting attention from farmers during the months ahead and some hints on preparing samples for exhibiting should be timely.

A good bulk sample is the first essential in making up a winning exhibit.

Following are a few pointers on preparing grain corn and potato exhibits offered by W. D. Hay, cerealist at this station.

In preparing seed for exhibition one should aim to produce a sample that is uniform in size; of good colour; high in weight per bushel; free from immature kernels, cracked or damaged kernels, and of course, free from weed seeds or impurities of any kind.
It is advisable to first do as much grading as possible with the fanning mill and finally to remove the remaining undesirable kernels by hand.

In wheat the abnormally large kernels are first removed and of the remainder those which will not pass through a No. 9 round screen are of the size required for show purposes.
After grading is done to obtain them a slotted screen 7/8" should be used to eliminate cracked kernels.

In the case of oats grading can best be done by passing them over a 12-41 screen to remove the short oats, and then over a round screen to grade them for plumpness. Green kernels that cannot be removed by fanning should be picked out by hand. By clipping the tips the weight per measured bushel can be greatly increased.

This can be done by putting the oats in a cotton sack tied very loosely so that they may be shaken about freely in the sack. By rubbing them vigorously in the sack the tips of the kernels can be easily broken off and these can then be removed by passing them over the fanning mill. Care should be taken not to overdo this clipping and thereby injure the kernels.

Potatoes should be selected as nearly ten ounces in size as possible and uniformity of size and shape is essential.

A corn and seed fair open to all exhibitors south of township 19 will be held in Lethbridge on November 18th and 19th, and the provincial seed fair will be held in Edmonton early in the new year. The Toronto Royal Show on November 21st to 25th, and the Chicago International the week following the Toronto Show. Many readers of this letter will be especially interested possibly in the Lethbridge fair and for further information should write to the Secretary A. E. Russell at Lethbridge. Those interested in the Edmonton, Toronto and Chicago shows should write to the Field Crops Commissioner at Edmonton.

LAMB FEEDING

This is the time of the year when plans and preparations are being made for the feeding of lambs on many farms in this district and it appears a timely topic for a weekly letter. The importance of getting the lambs early and putting them on feed at once in preference to leaving them with the rancher, too often is not recognized. Early fall storms give the lambs a set back which requires a large amount of feed to overcome whereas if the lambs are in the feed yards before the storms occur this set back will not occur. Not only will the feeder benefit from this but it will also be to the advantage of the rancher as the storms cause a heavy shrink in the lambs.

Sore mouth is a condition often found in feeder lambs and is largely caused by coarse hard feed to which the lambs are not accustomed. When this condition occurs the lambs do not eat well, consequently make no gains, in fact in many cases suffer severe losses in weight and bloom.
Because of this the practice of ranging lambs in stubble fields is of doubtful value, for while they may obtain some feed in this manner, and make slight gains, the danger if loss is too great.

PULP AND PAPER INDUSTRY

There has been no more startling development in the pulp and paper industry than the rapid spread in the use of cellophane, another chemical transformation of cellulose. New chemical discoveries presage further developments in the pulp and paper industry. At the present time, well developed experiments are under way in the direction of producing a new transparent, grease-resisting wrapping paper and a paper milk bottle so cheap that it may be destroyed after once being used. Tough paper bags are now being used for the shipment of cement and the time may not be far off when this type of bag will have superseded jute bags in other important industries.
